

Mike* & Sarah Vander Vloet, Broker*/Sales Representatives
www.facebook.com/leadingldn
info@leadinglondon.ca
www.leadinglondon.ca

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

~~1 Upcoming London Events~~
WHAT IS NOT CANCELLED
1 THERE REALLY IS NO
PLACE LIKE HOME
1 Real Estate Market Update

2 Are you Curious about your homes Value?
2 Just for Laughs
2 REALestate with Sarah
Vander Vloet

MARKET UPDATE

As you are aware the government released a list of essential services and since housing is deemed a basic need, real estate services are on the list

"67. Land registration services, and real estate agent services and moving services;"

But THIS IS NOT BUSINESS AS USUAL. Far from it.

We remain in a declared state of Emergency in Ontario, and our governing bodies have strongly suggested that REALTORS should be staying home, and continue working remotely when and if possible, keeping the health of ourselves, our families, and our communities at the forefront.

We look forward to returning to our full capacity and being able to serve our Buyers and Sellers again soon!

We are Passionate about ~~{the safety of}~~ OUR Community!

~~Upcoming London Events~~

Typically, in this section of our newsletter we list the fun upcoming events in our Community; however, given the current state of affairs, we will focus on the things that are not cancelled. Lets embrace what we have!

WALKING OUTSIDE	FAMILY TIME	READING
TIME WITH PETS	SINGING	LEARNING
LISTENING TO MUSIC	GRATITUDE	PHONE CALLS
LAUGHING	DANCING	YARD WORK
JOURNALLING/WRITING	COOKING	CLEANING

There REALLY is no place like home

By: Sarah Vander Vloet

We have loved being part of your home buying process. We know how important homes are! Not only are they an incredible asset but also, at a time like this, they are our safe haven and our refuge. Home has become a place of learning for all the children being "home schooled" right now, home has become our "office or place or work", home has become more important now than ever. When we were asked to stay home and self isolate or quarantine ourselves, I asked our followers on social media what feature of their home they are most thankful for right now. Here are some of the answers; toilet paper, hot tub, speakers to crank the music and dance and clean, my pet, big windows with a nice view, patio door to let the light in, fire pit, 3000 sqft, more than one bathroom, home gym, home office, a large yard and a big kitchen.

Just for Laughs

Looking at the map for some weekend travel ideas

Are you curious about your Homes Value?

While you have been spending all this extra time at home, you may have wondered what your home might be worth.

If you would like information about the current value of your home, send us a message and we would be happy to update you on the current sales in your area. If we can be of service to you in this time please reach out. We would love to talk with you about Real Estate or anything else anytime!

Where is your next travel destination?

- Las Kitchenas
- Los Lounges
- Santa Bedrooms
- Porto Gardenas
- Los bed
- Costa Del Balconia
- St bathroom
- La Rotonda De Sofa

REALestate with Sarah Vander Vloet

By: Sarah VanderVloet

There are now 3 segments in our video series where I am getting REAL about Real Estate. The first one was Real Estate and Animals, next came Real Estate Shouldn't Stink and then Confessions of a Realtor. Next to be released is one titled; There's a First Time for Everything.

This series can be found on our YouTube Channel www.youtube.com/leadinglondon or by visiting facebook.com/leadingldn

If you have something that you want us to get REAL about when it comes to Real Estate please send us your suggestion. We would love to hear your ideas and look forward to sharing these segments with you all.